

COMMISSION ON APPLIED AND CLINICAL SOCIOLOGY

BY-LAWS

[Approved August 1995]

ARTICLE I. NAME

Section A. The name of this organization shall be the Commission on Applied and Clinical Sociology.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

Section A. The purpose of this organization shall be to enable sociologists to make significant contributions to society, through the development, promotion, and support of quality sociological education and practice in applied and clinical areas.

Section B. The Commission on Applied and Clinical Sociology shall further the professional work of applied and clinical sociologists by means of the following objectives:

1. Maintaining a Commission-sponsored accreditation of clinical and applied sociological practice programs.
2. Maintaining a Commission-sponsored registry of graduates of programs accredited by the Commission.
3. Creating links between program accreditation and state sponsored professional registries, certification, and licensure.
4. Providing a clearinghouse for dissemination of program models and resources to departments interested in developing clinical and applied programs.
5. Educating the public about applied and clinical sociology by representing to government, non-profit agencies, employers and other institutions and interested parties the objectives of clinical and applied sociological education and practice.
6. Maintaining channels of communication between the Commission and other professional associations.

Section C. The Commission shall be operated as a non-profit organization under Section 501(c)6 of the Internal Revenue Service code. Any funds which may come into its possession shall be used exclusively for scientific, educational, professional, and advocacy purposes in relation to the practice of applied and clinical sociology.
